

Tillamook PUD Board Vacancy

July 28, 2008- Tillamook People's Utility District (PUD) has a vacant position on its board of directors. The position was held by Frank Brawner who recently resigned because of declining health issues. This position represents Subdivision No.1, in South Tillamook County.

The Board of Directors met on July 28, 2008, and voted to keep the position open until the general election in November, at which time, a representative will be elected to the office

###